Read the article “A Global Citizen Is” on pages 3-7 of your textbook, and answer the following questions.

What personal connection did you make while reading “A Global Citizen Is...”?
What text-to-text connections can you make with the photo on page 4?
How does the information on human rights connect with what you know about how some people around the world struggle for basic human rights?
What text-to-self, text-to-text, or text-to-world connections did you make with page 5?

1. What are the key points of the two sections on page 6? What kinds of connections do you make when reading these sections?

2. What is a tariff?

3. What is free trade?

4. What connections can you make with the photo on page 7?

5. What conclusions about free trade do you draw after viewing the photo and reading the section?

6. What issue (for example, human rights, sustainable living, global trade, or free trade) in this selection did you make the strongest connection to? Why?
